MONROE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CHAIR PAYS TRIBUTE TO DREYFUS

Monroe County Democratic Party Chair Steven Williams paid tribute to Governor Lee Sherman Dreyfus Thursday, following the announcement of his death.

Williams described his loss as “the passing of a Wisconsin icon who did what he thought was best for the citizens of Wisconsin.”

Williams, a state employee during the tenure of Governor Dreyfus, recalled his personable manner. “He would always speak to you, no matter what your level.”

Williams also said, “Dreyfus’s support of major health care reform was more in line with progressive views rather than that of today’s Republicans.”
