SUPER TUESDAY BRINGS NO WINNER
MONROE COUNTY DEMOCRATS INVIGORATED

Monroe County Democratic Party Chair Steven Williams said Wednesday, "With Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama in a dead heat for the Democratic nomination Monroe County and the rest of the state will see a flurry of activity from both campaigns before Wisconsin's February 19 Primary."

"Democrats have the momentum going into the fall election," said Williams, "and the enthusiasm spreading across the nation will be brought to our front door for the next ten days as the two candidates and their supporters travel the state."

Williams said, "Monroe County Democrats view the large Democratic turnout in the Super Tuesday primaries and caucuses as evidence of the Party's surging strength. It will be tough for Democrats and Independents, as well as some crossover Republicans, to choose from two outstanding, qualified presidential candidates. Regardless of who is the Democratic nominee Monroe County Democrats will be united in support."

Williams said the agenda at the Party's monthly meeting to be held at the Wilton Community Center at 7 p.m., Monday Feb. 11, will include discussion of the February 19 Wisconsin primary and introduction of Democratic candidates for the 50th and 96th Assembly Districts.
