3rd Congressional Democratic Party Convention

More than 160 delegates have registered for the 3rd Congressional District Convention to be held in Sparta on Saturday, March 29, at Jake's Northwoods, 1132 Angelo Road, according to Steven Williams, Monroe County Democratic Party Chair.

"It is the first time that the Monroe County Democrats have hosted an event of this magnitude," said Williams. The District includes 19 Wisconsin counties, stretching from St. Croix and Dunn counties in the north to Grant and Lafayette counties in the south.

Keynote speaker Dr. Patricia Raftery, Director of Monroe County's St. Clare Health Mission, will be joined by 3rd District Congressman Ron Kind in addressing the delegates. Also on the agenda is election of officers and the debate of a number of proposed resolutions.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. The convention opens at 9:30 a.m. There is a $30 registration fee for cost of materials, all-day refreshments and the noon luncheon buffet.

"The convention is open to the public," said Williams, "and you do not have to be a member of the Democratic Party to attend."
